EASTMOOR JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

COLUMBUS, OHIO
1959 VOLUME III

DEDICATION

Four short years have swiftly passed since we entered Eastmoor High School as Freshmen. Then the school was new and incomplete; we were, also.

The following school years brought about many important changes at Eastmoor. Our student body doubled in size. Our beautiful school expanded its facilities and acquired a new football field, including a stadium, pressbox and night lights. Our community's population soared as new housing projects sprang up over night. Most important, we developed into young adults, guided patiently by our parents and teachers.

To the 1959 graduates—the first class to complete a full four year scholastic program at Eastmoor High School—we dedicate this 1959 Shield.

Four years ago Eastmoor, still under construction, greeted 750 students and 31 teachers on that first day of school, September 7, 1955 and soon finishing touches to class-rooms . . .

Outdoor construction was speeded along in a battle against time . . .

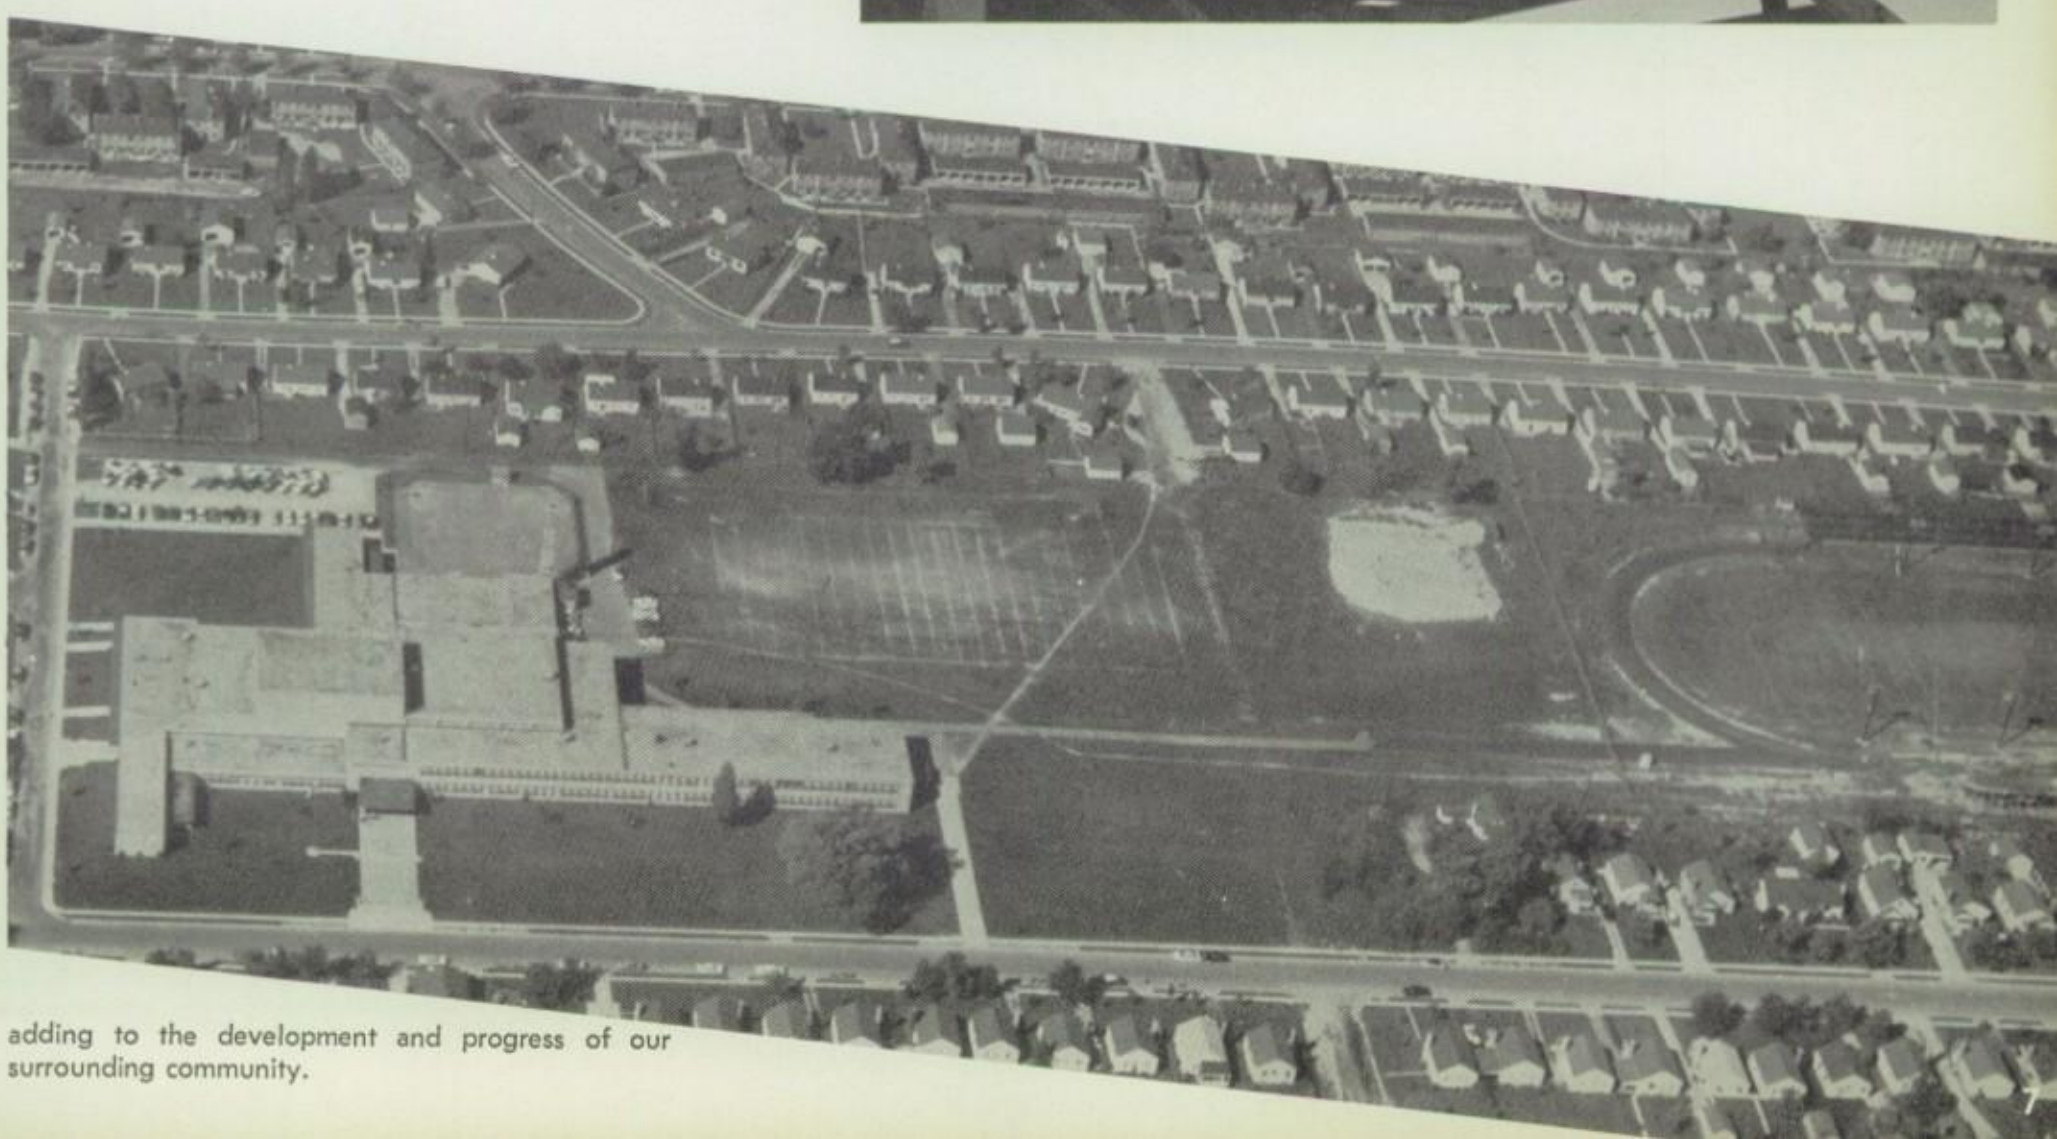
completed a. new and beautiful school able to accommodate 1500 students.

Eastmoor Warriors anxiously observed construction work on the football stadium . . .

which was completed in time for the 1959 Homecoming activities . . .



adding to the development and progress of our surrounding community.

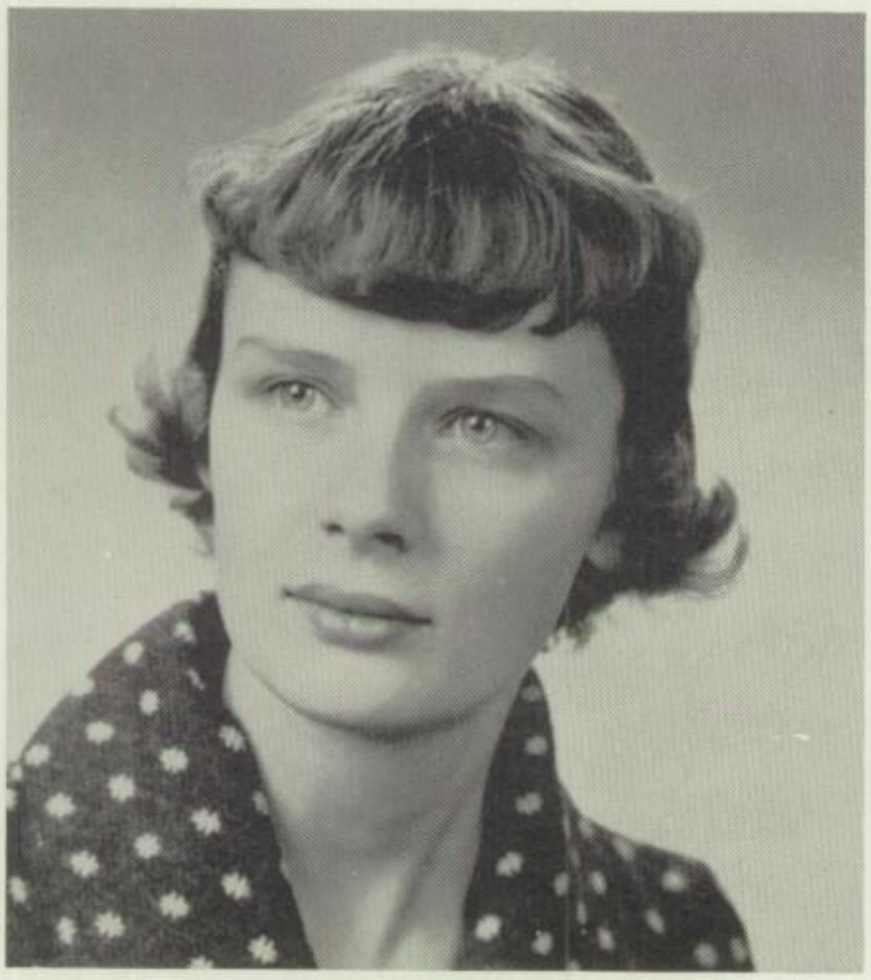
IN MEMORY OF

JUDITH ELLEN KOONCE



On Wednesday, October 15, 1958, Eastmoor's students and faculty members assembled on the school lawn to honor the memory of one of their teachers, Miss Judith Ellen Koonce, who heroically met her tragic death this summer while attempting the rescue of a young child.

This memorial service was conducted to dedicate the planting of a red bud, Miss Koonce's favorite tree, as a symbol of her love for the outdoors.

Students contributed to purchase a bronze plaque which was placed at the foot of the tree. The inscription reads:

"In memory of Judy Ellen Koonce, Eastmoor Teacher, 1957-58. Died on July 17, 1958, in the swollen waters of the Little Miami River while attempting the rescue of an eleven-year-old camper."

In honor of her bravery she was awarded the Carnegie Hero Medal posthumously.

Judy Koonce taught science and art to Eastmoor students. She was an active member of the faculty and sponsored the Outdoor Club.

The October Fifteenth dedication

Linda Stuart and David Gettys, president of last year's Outdoor Club, are kneeling in front of the plaque.

All Eastmoor seniors who attain a scholastic average of 3.2 are candidates for membership in the National Honor Society. The 1959 members were tapped for membership at the Honor Assembly held in the auditorium in the spring. In addition to high scholarship, they qualified on the basis of worthy character, constructive leadership, and purposeful service to Eastmoor High School.

HONOR COMES TO EASTMOOR

This is a representative body of the honors that have come to Eastmoor students this year.

Student Court at Eastmoor is as the name suggests, a judicial body. It not only punishes the misguided student, but also helps him adjust to school routine. This group tries such cases as running in halls, chewing gum, littering school property, and writing on desks. The punishment for committing such misdemeanors generally fits the offense. For example, a student found guilty of chewing gum might be asked to rid the drinking fountains of all chewing gum. The offenders are tried by seven judges, three juniors and four seniors, which are elected by the students. The court also has three appointed members, two recorders and a bailiff. Student Court, under the supervision of Mr. Conover, works for good citizenship at Eastmoor.

Eastmoor's Student Council is a legislative body composed of our school leaders. The representatives to this group together with their advisor, Mr. Conover, encourage good citizenship and high ideals among all students. Each year they aid needy families in our community during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. This aid is in the form of food, clothing, and toys which is donated by our student body. Student Council also sponsors many recreational activities during the year. The Homecoming Dance and the Mistletoe Ball are annual dances sponsored by this student body.

SENIOR BAND TRIP

Four chartered buses carried our marching band to Cleveland on Columbus Day, October 12. We had been invited to present the halftime show for the Cleveland-Chicago football game.

A roadside park proved to be an inviting spot for a "paper-bag" lunch and a quick stretch.

After checking last minute details with Mr. Stuart and Mr. Kaye . . .

The band anxiously waited on the side lines for half-time.

Our fine show included a "Rock Around the Clock" number and a flag formation.

Satisfied with a job well done, the band headed for dinner and the trip home.

1959 SHIELD STAFF

Judy Sterling and Marjorie Hillson, Co-Editors.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future Teachers of America has a dual purpose—to stimulate the interest of high school students in the teaching profession and to serve the school. Miss Bell is the advisor for Junior F.T.A. and Miss Glessner is the advisor for Senior F.T.A.

SENIOR F.T.A. OFFICERS—First row: Sally Kall, Secretary; Judy Sterling, President; Laurie Kuchler, Vice President; Sally Kapp, Treasurer; Second row: Julianne Radich, Assistant Program Chairman; Miss Glessner, Advisor; Sue Riley, Program Chairman.

JUNIOR F.T.A. OFFICERS: Sharon Pierce, President; Sharon Strapp, Vice President; Mary Jane Eyster, Secretary; Janet Gray, Treasurer; Miss Bell, Advisor.

Barbara Corbin, Denise Snider, and Roslyn Jackson are earning their Senior F.T.A. merit points by grading test papers for teachers.

These Junior F.T.A. girls are counting the profits from their bake sale.

Y-TEENS

The purpose of Y-Teens is to grow in knowledge and understanding of other peoples. Mrs. Singleton is advisor for Junior Y-Teens and Miss Casey is the advisor for Senior Y-Teens.

SENIOR Y-TEENS OFFICERS: Miss Jean Casey, Advisor; Sue Riley, Vice President; Amelia Neely, President; Jan Rogers, Treasurer; Jackie Rose, Secretary.

At the Hobo Convention Juli Warner and Sherrie Gibbons sang "Slap Her Down Again Paul."

The tattered clothes worn by Jan Rogers, Jennifer Douthit, Sandy Bland, Amelia Neely, and Mary Heffron certainly added to the spirit of the Hobo Convention.

Christmas caroling was one of the Junior Y-Teens projects. Pictured are Donna Swaney, Gail Francis, Terrie Rose, Tara Jackson, Sharon Tewell, and Cathy Phillips.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS' OFFICERS: Joan Miller, President; Sharon Coombs, Vice President; Tara Jackson, Secretary-Treasurer; Terrie Rose, Co-ordinating Chairman; Mrs. Ina Singleton, Advisor; Susan Titus, Service Chairman; Sarah Welch, Social Chairman; Judy Kuchler, Music Chairman; Connie Long, Program Chairman; Mary Beth Morris, Worship Chairman.

HI-Y

The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend higher standards of character throughout the home, school, and community. Mr. Crane is the Junior Hi-Y advisor and Mr. Aggas is the Senior Hi-Y advisor.

SENIOR HI-Y STEERING COMMITTEE: Dick Gatlin, Ray Bland, Jim Hicks, Ron Boyers, Mr. Aggas, Jim Herd, John Braulick, Bill Gillam, Jim Huffman.

WARRIORS CLUB

The Warriors Club is the largest organization at Eastmoor. The group is advised by Mr. Heintz and Mr. Fry. The purpose of the Warriors Club is to create more school spirit in sports. A committee from this club makes posters to promote attendance at games.

WARRIORS CLUB OFFICERS: Robert Heintz, Advisor; Helayne Margulis, Secretary; Ron Casserly, Treasurer; Curtis Haywood, Sergeant-at-Arms; Dick Wilson, Vice President; Nelson Freeman, President.

These girls, Cindy Husted, Claudette Corbett, Amelia Neely, and Sharon Cheeseman, are members of the Warriors Club poster committee.

DANCE CLUB

A new club has been added this year. The Dance Club with its advisor Mrs. Glaser promotes interest in dance. Girls from this group were chosen to be in the Warriorettes. The group sponsored one of the sock hops.

Dance Club Officers from front to back: Ellene Appelbaum, Secretary; Bev Reynolds, President; Rita Zweier, Vice President; Nancy Lattimer, Drum Master; Rita Kastl, Business Manager; Glenna Layman, Treasurer; Judy Williams, Costume Mistress.

Charlene Johnson, Mari Werlin, Maureen Nimz, and Judy Williams are practicing a dance routine they learned during one of the Dance Club meetings.

ART CLUB

The Art Club, under the supervision of Mr. Higbee, serves to increase the students' knowledge of the arts. It is responsible for the attractive decorations we see in the show case windows.

ART CLUB STEERING COMMITTEE: Marcia Davis, Georgette Goldberg, Sandra Price, Virginia Thomas, Don Gussler, Michael Kohar, Richard Dorman.

DRAMATICS CLUB

The Dramatics Club's goal is to further the interest of students in the field of drama. Entertainment is presented at each meeting. This group, under the advisorship of Mr. Keiser, sponsors the drama award and promotes the school plays by selling tickets.

DRAMATICS CLUB OFFICERS—First row: Karen Bennett, Vice President; Emmet Pearson, President; Second row: Frank Raisen, Sergeant-at-Arms; Rita Kastl, Treasurer; Alice Shenker, Secretary; Mr. Keiser, Advisor.

"Keep looking. We'll find it yet." Pictured are Cindy Husted, Alan Ross, Frank Raisen, Stan Bobrof, Phil Schwartz, Emmet Pearson, and Marcia Rhodes.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club serves as a meeting time for all library assistants. During this time they organize the annual Book Fair and take library inventory under the advisorship of Miss Jackson, school librarian.

This is a typical library club meeting. The officers of the group are Gary Fisherbaugh, President; Jerry Diller, Vice President; and Kathryn Wright, Secretary.

STAMP CLUB

The Stamp Club, under the advisorship of Mrs. Day, strives to develop an interest in stamp collecting among Eastmoor students. The club members exchange stamps and study them during their meetings.

Jerry Falabella, Vice President; David Cabit, President; John Lane; Mike Gorski; Paul Tracy; and Mrs. Day, Advisor. Not pictured is Peggy Alrich, Secretary-Treasurer.

CHESS CLUB

The purpose of the Chess Club is twofold. Not only does it stimulate interest and develop proficiency in the game of chess, but it gives students a chance for a friendly game at each club period. Their advisor is Mr. Buck.

Joe Burker and John DeLong are the Chess Club champions.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to encourage interest, appreciation, and participation in girls' sports.

The group planned the Hi-Bye Dance which was held in March. A few of their other activities include a Mother-Daughter Tea, a spring picnic, and intramural sports.

Basketball intramurals are a very important G.A.A. activity.

Sue Decker, Holly Talley, Sharon McCoy, and Judy Williams are making posters for the Hi-Bye Dance.

Ricky Brown, Ben Rose, Karel Kreiselman, Marla Greenfield, and Jerry Singleton are examining some Spanish posters.

SPANISH CLUB

Learning about the people and the culture of Spanish-speaking countries is the goal of the Spanish Club. Their advisor, Mr. Orosz, tries to accomplish this aim through movies.

SPANISH CLUB OFFICERS: Ricky Brown, President; Marla Greenfield, Vice President and Secretary; Karel Kreiselman, Treasurer.

FRENCH CLUB OFFICERS—Front row: Joyce Bachmann, President; Sally Smith, Program Chairman; Back row: James Tharp, Advisor; Bernie Bornstein, Treasurer; Joe Mirman, Vice President.

FRENCH CLUB

Mr. Tharp, advisor of the French Club, aims to develop the interest of French students in subjects related to their studies. To accomplish this, speakers have given informative lectures on various French-speaking countries and club members have been encouraged to visit art galleries to become better acquainted with French art.

Here is our "roaring '20's" chorus line performing at the French Banquet. They are Julia Walls, Janice Moltonberry, Sharon Pierce, Janet Gray, and Bernie Bornstein.

JUNIOR RED CROSS CLUB

"Aiding the needy" is the goal of Junior Red Cross Club. Their activities this year have been filling overseas boxes with toys and educational items and making placemats and wall decorations for Franklin Village and Children's Hospital. The advisor for this group is Mrs. Pryor.

June Hoover, Bill Munyan, Linda Leonard, Mary Lou Case, and Gwen Strawser are making Easter baskets for Children's Hospital.

The wall decorations the Junior Red Cross Club made for Franklin Village and Children's Hospital are being displayed here by Mrs. Pryor, Linda Whittier, and Roberta Shaw.

SENIOR RED CROSS CLUB

The Senior Red Cross Club and its advisor, Miss Holtzman, have taken on the responsibility of helping those handicapped by illness. They've accomplished this by bringing baked goods to the hospitals and by decorating the hospital walls with colorful posters.

JUNIOR SCIENCE CLUB

The Junior Science Club strives to stimulate the members' interests in fields of science. This year together with their advisor, Mr. Murphy, the group went on a field trip to Battelle Memorial Institute.

David Thomas, John Moore, Dave Hillenbrand, and Steve Stellman are examining the project by the physics class, proving the velocity of free fall.

Gerald Stentz, Barry Friedman, Kelly Turner, and Bonnie Makar are observing a globe of the heavens.

SENIOR SCIENCE CLUB

The purpose of the Senior Science Club is to increase the members' scientific knowledge. Mr. Condit, their advisor, is helping them as they prepare their projects for the Science Fair.

OUTDOOR CLUB

The Outdoor Club, under the direction of Mr. Foose, took a field trip to the Ohio State Historical Museum. They've planned swimming parties and hikes for the spring.

OUTDOOR CLUB OFFICERS: Sandra Price, Program Chairman; Bob Benjamin, Treasurer; Steve Bless, President; Linda Stuart, Vice President; Virginia Thomas, Secretary; Sandra Hellrud, Program Chairman; Mr. Foose, Advisor.

Richard Dorman and Dixie Ewing are examining the telephone exhibit at the O.S.U. Historical Museum.

The pioneer exhibit at the O.S.U. Historical Museum is especially interesting to these members of the Outdoor Club.

The Light bulb exhibit at O.S.U. Historical Museum is fascinating to Dixie Ewing, Renee Harmel, Judy McKinsey, Lynn Kramer, and Betty Mills.

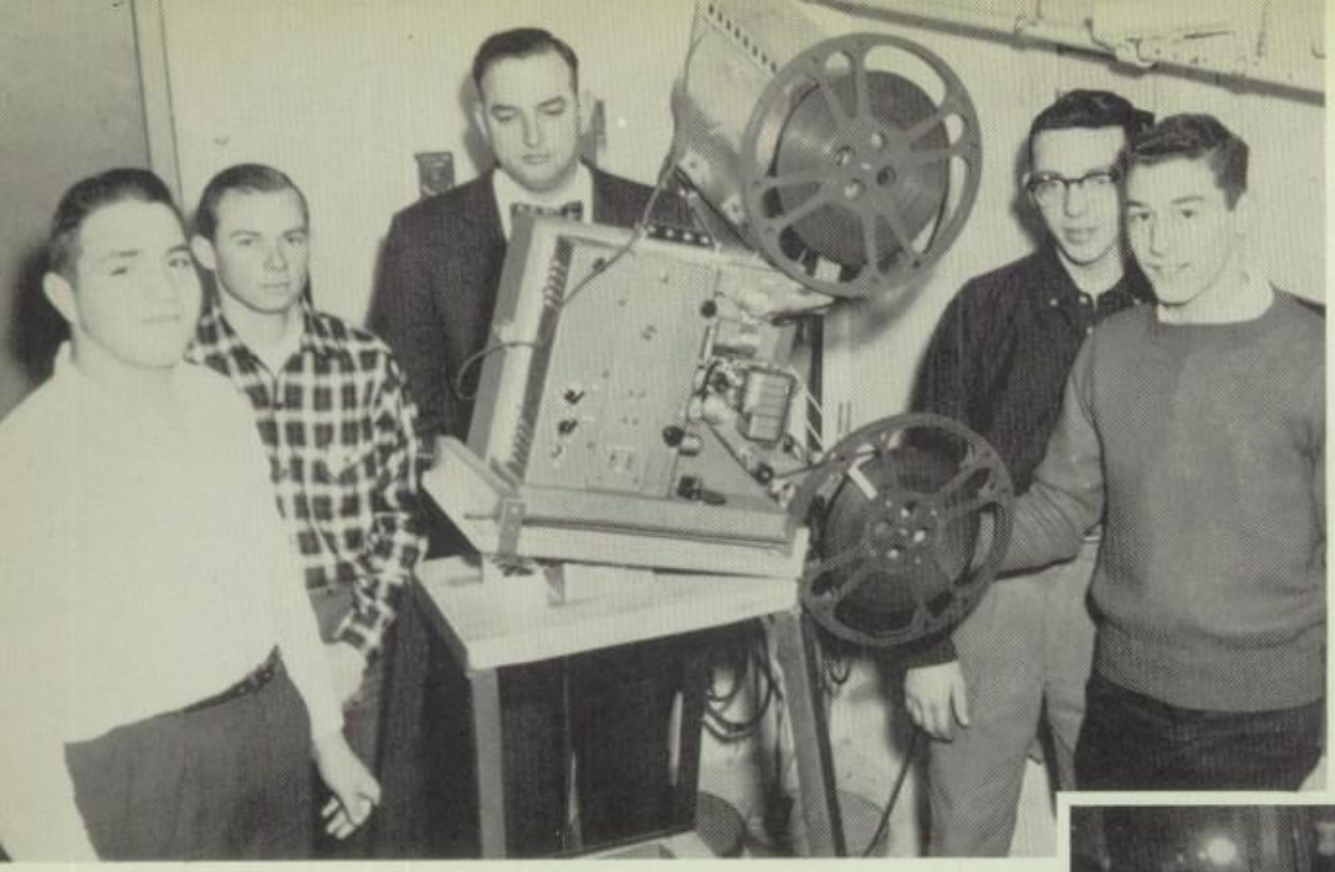
SLIDE RULE CLUB

Mr. Tata serves as advisor to the Slide Rule Club. The purpose of the group is to become more adept in using the slide rule.

Janet Read, Margaret Leu, Ted Mock, and Jim Andre are working out a mathematical problem with the help of the slide rule.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

"Service to the school" is the motto of the Audio Visual Club. They aim to promote interest in audio visual aids and to attract students in careers in this field. The members with their advisor, Mr. Howard, took a trip to see South Pacific and visited Hunt's Cine-Stage to observe operating techniques and to see the audio visual equipment.



AUDIO VISUAL CLUB OFFICERS: Harold Stahr, Vice President; Roger Seckel, General Manager; Robert Howard, Advisor; Bill Elliott, President; Denny Tishroff, Secretary-Treasurer.

These boys are learning to operate a film projector.

The Camera Club members are learning how to use a slide projector. The boys are John Russin, Rusty Hannon, Dennis Townsend, and Mike Pinto.

CAMERA CLUB OFFICERS: John Voneida, President; Dorothy Mertz, Secretary; Ronald Stewart, Vice President.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club is a group of photography enthusiasts. Through actual experience in picture-taking and group discussion, the members with the help of their advisor, Mr. Barr, are gaining knowledge in this field.

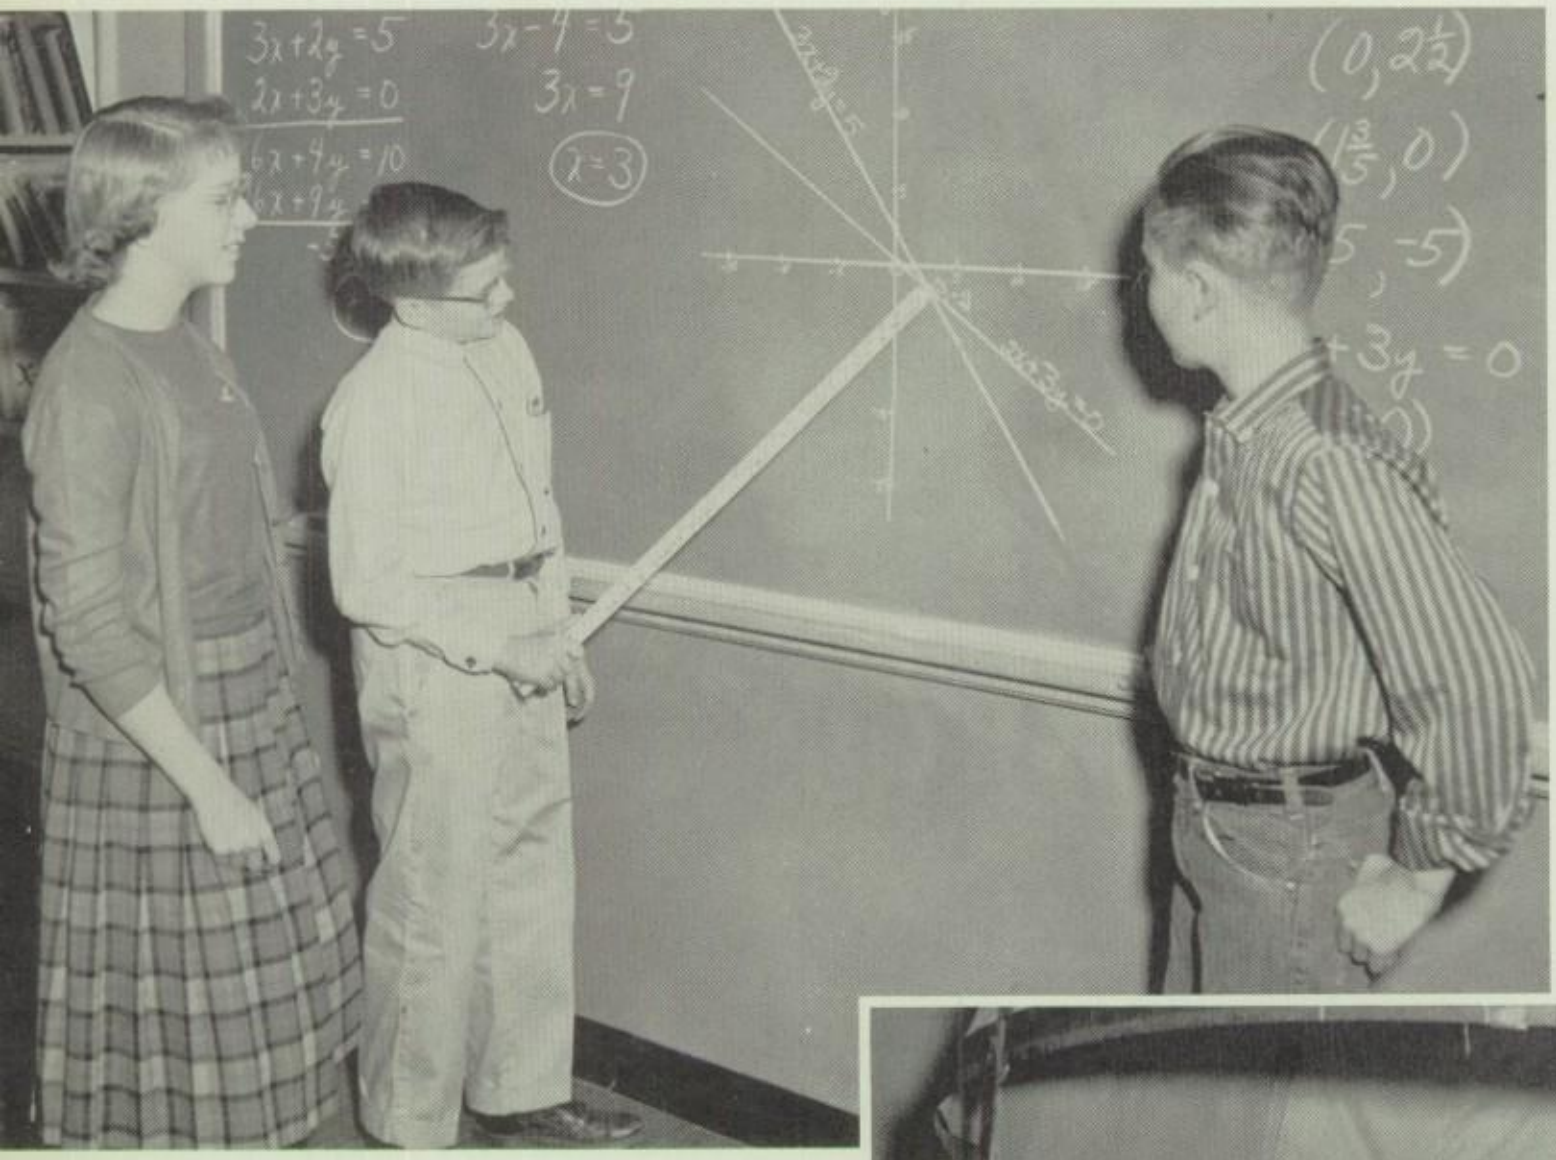
THE SCHOOL IN ACTION

Graphs are necessary for a complete understanding of algebra. Sandra Bergman, Steve Hutchinson, and Steve Hillman are plotting lines to correlate with equations.



Sue Kirkbride, Betty Layne, Jim Makar, and Mike Gilford are investigating the field of astronomy for one of their Science Seminar projects.

Mary Jane Chitteden, Lynn Stanley, Sue Douthit find French more colorful with the study of French geography.

ADVANCED CLASSES

Eastmoor began a program for the academically talented students three and one-half years ago with one self contained classroom of gifted students selected from the seventh grade. Today, while still very much in a developmental stage, this program for able learners has grown to involve mathematics, science, social studies, English, and foreign languages. There has been added to these special selections a rapid reading course. In order to qualify for this course each student must maintain a 12th grade level of reading.

Each special class has its own criterion for selection. This makes it possible for a person especially capable in one particular area to be selected for a certain class, even though he may not qualify for others. Generally speaking, however, most individuals gifted in one academic field are superior in others. Out of the total student body there are 21% who are involved in this advanced program.

Contrary to common belief, gifted children when placed with others of like ability, are less likely to get an exaggerated notion of their superiority. This is due to the fact they are aware that others also do well.

The advanced plane geometry course includes surveying. Dick England, Sandy Eads, and Danny Fleming are learning how to use a hypsometer and a sextant.

Ten girls were selected from the Senior class as candidates for the homecoming court. The five girls on the court were elected from the ten by the student body. In a final election the queen was chosen and the results of the election were announced at halftime of the homecoming game. Sandy Jordan reigned as queen at the homecoming dance on the following night.

FALL ACTIVITIES

Under the direction of Mr. Kaye's son, Salli Kall, Sherrie Gibbons, Bill Jones, and the band members are performing on the football field during halftime.

Book Week, an event sponsored by the Children's Book Council, is an annual project at Eastmoor.

These ghosts, Neva Lowe and Ellen Appelbaum, participated in a skit presented for the neighboring elementary schools by the dramatics department to promote the Fun Without Destruction project.

Judy Williams, Jackie Rose, and Ron Wollett are boxing the food collected by Student Council to give needy families in our community at Thanksgiving time.

Miss Glessner's eighth grade history class is reliving the Pilgrim's first Thanksgiving.

Senior Y-Teens sponsored the Thanksgiving Assembly with Rabbi Folkman as guest speaker. Here Miss Casey, Eileen Collins, and Rachel Egbert are talking with him after the program.

CHRISTMAS ACTIVITIES

Roslyn Greenberg and Harvey Siegelman designed Santa's Workshop, a delightful, mechanical display, which added to the Christmas spirit in our library.

The seniors in our choir filled our halls with strains of Christmas music the day before our holiday vacation began.

The gifts collected by Student Council for needy families are being put under the Christmas tree by these two girls.

Eastmoor's Student Council sponsors the Mistletoe Ball annually. These three scenes from this year's dance reflect some of the evening's festivities.

The gang, Dave Foote, Phil Schwartz, Tom Smith, Steve Foster, Emmet Pearson, and Stan Bobrof, are trying to arrange last-minute dates.

The waitress (Karen Bennett) suspectingly says to Morgan (Steve Foster) and Beau (Phil Schwartz), "Yeah? Let's see your draft cards."

BERNARDINE

The hilarious two-act comedy Bernardine, written by Mary Chase, depicts the escapades of a "gang of teenage boys," searching for the girl of their dreams. Bernardine was presented by the Dramatics Department, under the direction of Mr. James Keiser. Student directors were Ireen Friedman and Amelia Neely.

"You can't bring home a 35 in a math exam and run around over the weekend," Mrs. Weldy (Sally Kall) scolds her son, Wormy (Emmet Pearson).

Wormy (Emmet Pearson) says to Enid (Sue Seckel), "You're a dream and I've been waiting for you all my life. Shall we go . . . doll?"

"Lady Ermintrude! O maid of infinite beauty, wilt thou grant thine humble suppliant but one boon?"

The aggressive Elaine (Pat Mayfield) tells the lecturer, "It's leap year. Let's cuddle up a little closer."

HOW TO PROPOSE

This delightful one-act comedy by Conrad Seiler was presented by the dramatics classes under the direction of Mr. Kaiser. The narrator (Frank Raisen) lectured on the history of the art of proposing. Colorful scenes illustrated the techniques of proposing as they developed through the ages. A caveman (Phil Schwartz) chases and catches his woman (Rita Kastl), a knight (Stan Bobrof) asks for the hand of his lady fair (Ireen Friedman), and many other people from different ages propose to the men or women of their desires. Between sketches the stage hand (Ben Rose) amuses the audience with his antics as he changes the props and scenery.

Pleasure-weary millionaire (Emmet Pearson) proposes to bored heiress (Joy Henry) at a fashionable country club.

After father (Steve McDowell) leaves the parlor, the shy young man (Gary Fisherbaugh) proposes to giggling Miss Vera (Ellen Appelbaum).

"What you t'ind of dat old ball-and-chain stuff?" Butch (Phil Schwartz) asks Cookie (Helene Topp).

To give cupid a hand the Eastmoor student body elected Dick Schulz and Angel Burnette king and queen of hearts. They were crowned at "Cupids Capers," a Valentine's Day dance sponsored by the Senior Y-Teens.

Jan Rogers honored the king and queen of "Cupid's Capers" by singing "I'm in the Mood for Love." She was accompanied by the North High School Dance Band.

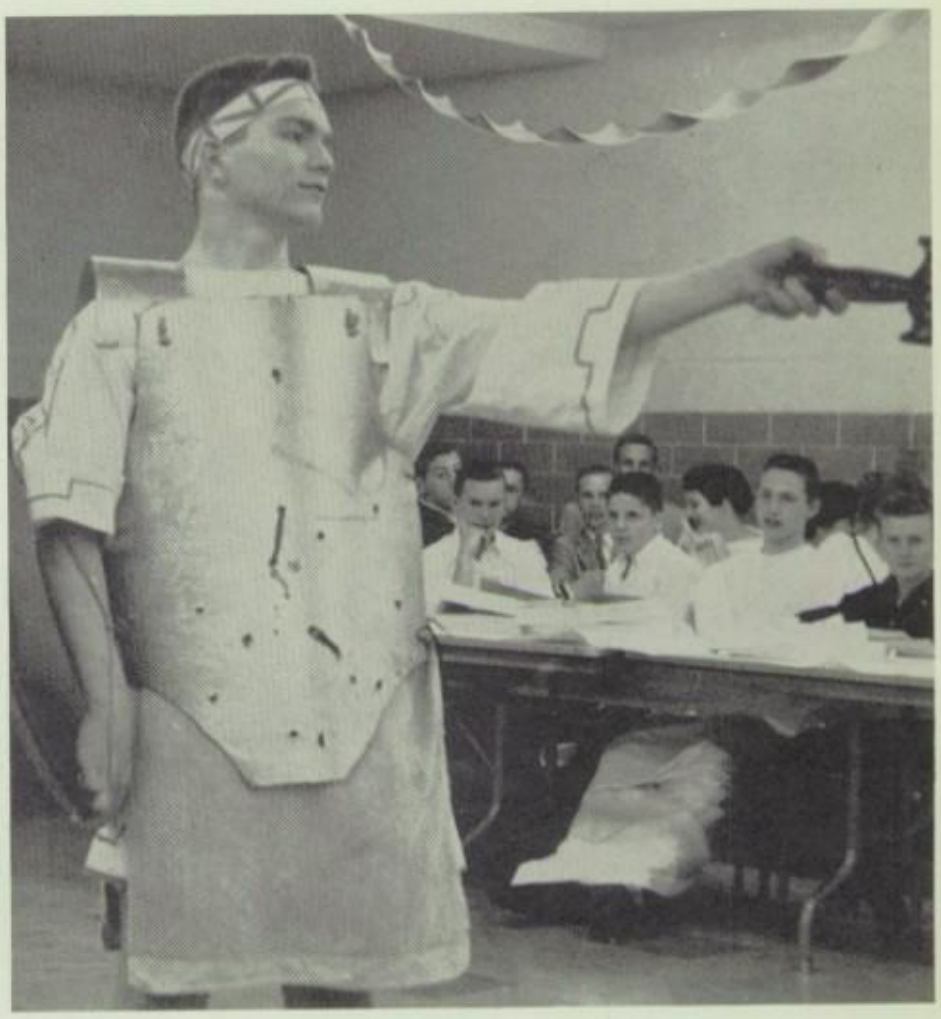
WINTER ACTIVITIES

The Warriorettes and their advisor Mrs. Glaser are both new additions to Eastmoor this year. About 15 girls were selected to be part of this dance group. These sophomores and juniors were chosen by ten judges, students and teachers. They were selected on the basis of general appearance, rhythm, and timing. They will perform during half-time at football games and in other activities such as variety shows.

Many sock-hops were held in the Eastmoor gym after football and basketball games. These girls are doing the bunny hop at the dance sponsored by the journalism classes.

LATIN BANQUET

On April 21, the legendary date of the founding of Rome, the Latin classes held their annual Latin Banquet. These pictures were taken at last year's banquet. This Roman patrician is really Miss Lincoln, the Latin instructor.



Here stands the victorious gladiator, Jon Ewing. His prize for surviving this most bloody battle was his choice of the slaves. Jon chose Pat Carruthers.

COLLEGE NIGHT

College Night, an evening devoted to helping students examine possibilities for higher education, was held February 9. All students and parents were invited to attend this PTA program. Below: Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Swinger and Mr. Mayer are talking to Dr. Harold Yochum, president of Capitol University, and the guest speaker of the evening.

After Dr. Yochum's excellent speech on "Opening the Way to Higher Education," representatives from ten Ohio colleges and universities met and discussed their schools' programs and advantages with interested students and parents. Below: Francie Hiller, Miss Miller, and Stan Bobrof are looking at pamphlets and folders about Miami University.

Two thrifty students, Tom Merrit and Donna Weed, buy carnival tickets in advance at a reduced rate from Mrs. William Kirkman and Mrs. Richard M. Riley.

This interesting group of thespians (Miss Singer, Miss Jackson, Mr. Barr, Mr. Conover, Mr. Dixon, and Miss Lincoln) are taking a curtain call after the charming melodrama they presented in the variety show.

WINTER CARNIVAL

One of the highlights of the school year was the Winter Carnival. This fun-filled event, held February 21, was the Parent-Teachers Association's big money-making project of the year. Students, parents, teachers, and friends came to the carnival. There children and adults both found activities that amused and interested them. The game rooms were packed as young and old tried their luck and skill. Housewives and future homemakers shopped for bargains in the country store and in the white elephant shop, and the men in the family tested their athletic prowess at the games in the gymnasium. All stopped for snacks at the canteen or for a meal in the cafeteria. A must for every carnival-goer was the variety show in which parents and teachers were the feature attractions. These and many more activities made the day both profitable and enjoyable.

The gym is filled as "young," as well as old, show off their muscles.

George Riddle delighted the audience at the variety show with his accordion music.

"But, why shouldn't I kiss you?" Miss Wilhelmina (Diana Friedman) asks Jeffery (Tom Smith).

"We were fostered by a werewolf—every Savage son of us!" screams Lily Belle (Marcia Rhodes) as Mrs. Savage (Sally Kall) bites her.

THE CURIOUS SAVAGE

A Three-Act Play
By JOHN PATRICK

Directed By JAMES KEISER

Mrs. Savage, a rich widow decides to do all the foolish things she has ever wanted to do and to establish a fund to help other people do the same. Her stepchildren have her committed to "The Cloisters," an exclusive mental institution, because she is fast depleting the Savage fortune in what seems to be an insane manner. The pleasing atmosphere of the institution and the kindly disposition of the other patients makes Mrs. Savage feel that the people in "The Cloisters" are really sane and that the busy money- and power-grabbing people of the outside world are the insane ones. Finally she is declared sane and consents to leave the institution only because she feels she can do good in the outside world.

Florence (Susan Brown), Hannibal (Ben Rose), Fairy Mae (Judy Williams), and Jeffery (Tom Smith) anxiously await the arrival of Mrs. Savage.

Mrs. Paddy (Cynthia Husted) who hasn't answered a question in 20 years, is admiring her canvas.

In a magical moment Florence (Susan Brown) is seen with her son, John (Jerry Rose) who has been dead for several years.

GRIDIRON SUMMARY

Eastmoor's 1958 football season was their first year in the City League. It proved to be the best season so far for the Warriors. Under the coaching of Bob Stuart, the Warriors finished with a fine record of four wins, three losses, and two ties. Eastmoor's football season began with the "kick-off" preview at West High School. Although the Warriors failed to score against East or West in the preview, they came out first in yardage and downs. The first game of the season was with Whitehall. We handed the Rams a 22-0 defeat, which promised a successful season. Looking for their second win, the Warriors next invaded Delaware; but they ran up against a very high spirited team. The outcome was a tie. Eastmoor's City League debut with West was very successful. Backed by a powerful ground attack, the Warriors grinded out a 18-0 victory over the Cowboys. Aquinas visited our stadium for the first home game. Down by twelve points, our team showed their fighting spirit by scoring a 16-12 victory. This put us top in the City League standings. The Warriors homecoming game with North proved to be a real thriller. Both teams fought hard for victory but the game ended in a 12-12 tie. For our next game Eastmoor traveled to Linden for the City League game of the year. While the Warriors were winning 6-2, an unexpected fog settled over the field. When it had lifted Linden had bagged a 10-6 victory, but only after a real battle. A defensive-minded East team traveled to Eastmoor and downed the Warriors in a 6-0 defeat. Although the Warriors were defeated, they played hard all the way. Anxious for a win, Eastmoor invaded Marion-Franklin for the last City League game of the year. Our Warriors came out on top with a booming 38-0 victory. Eastmoor's League record was three wins, two losses, and one tie. This placed our team third in the City League. On November 7, Eastmoor played host to Greenfield-McClain. Because it was Dad's Nite our Warriors especially wanted a victory. But they were defeated 20-6. This brought Eastmoor's 1958 football season to an end.

The Warriors basketball team did not have the best "win-and-loss" record in the city, but it did have a fine squad with tremendous confidence and team spirit. They won one league, and two non-league games.

Eastmoor got their league victory over South. They defeated them in an overtime 68-64. This was the first game of the year and, without a doubt, the most exciting. The first non-league victory was over Big Walnut 74-70. The Warriors had to come from behind to win this one. The other non-league victory was over St. Charles 73-59. This was another exciting game, and Eastmoor's best performance of the year.

The basketball season came to a close when Grandview defeated Eastmoor 83-52 in the tournament game played at the fairgrounds coliseum.

EIGHTH GRADE TIGERS

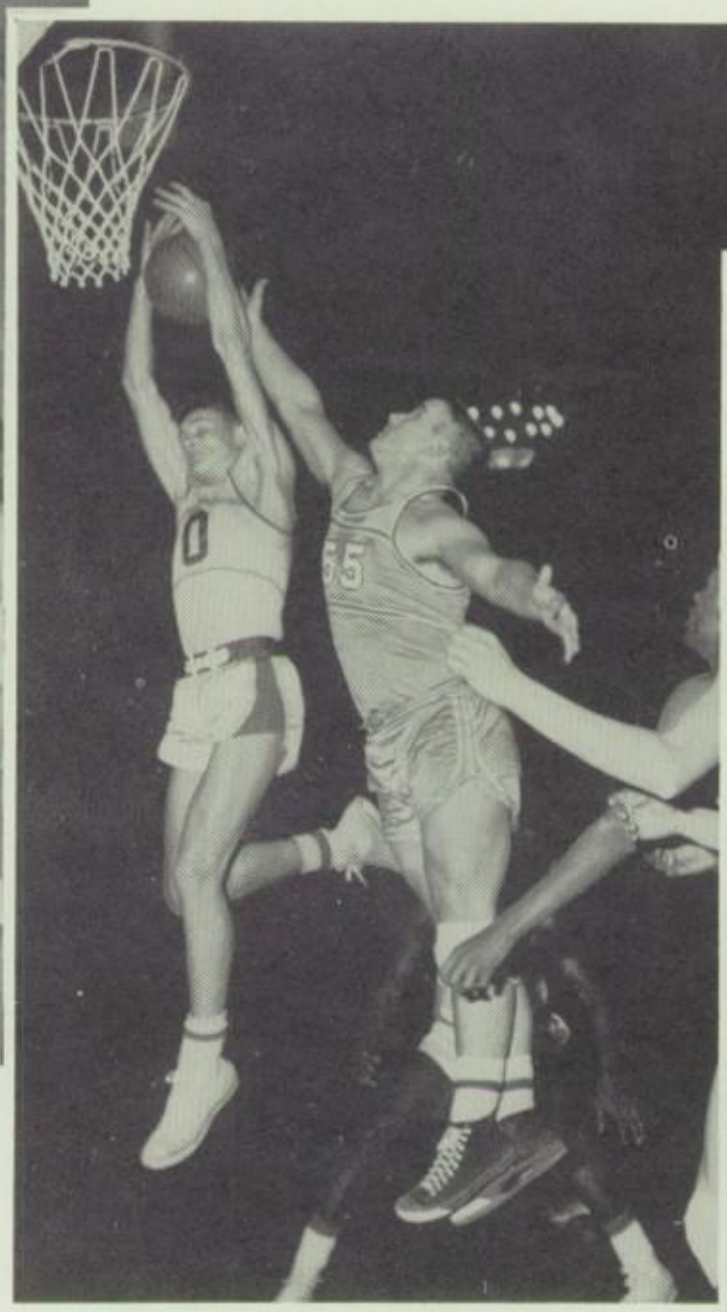
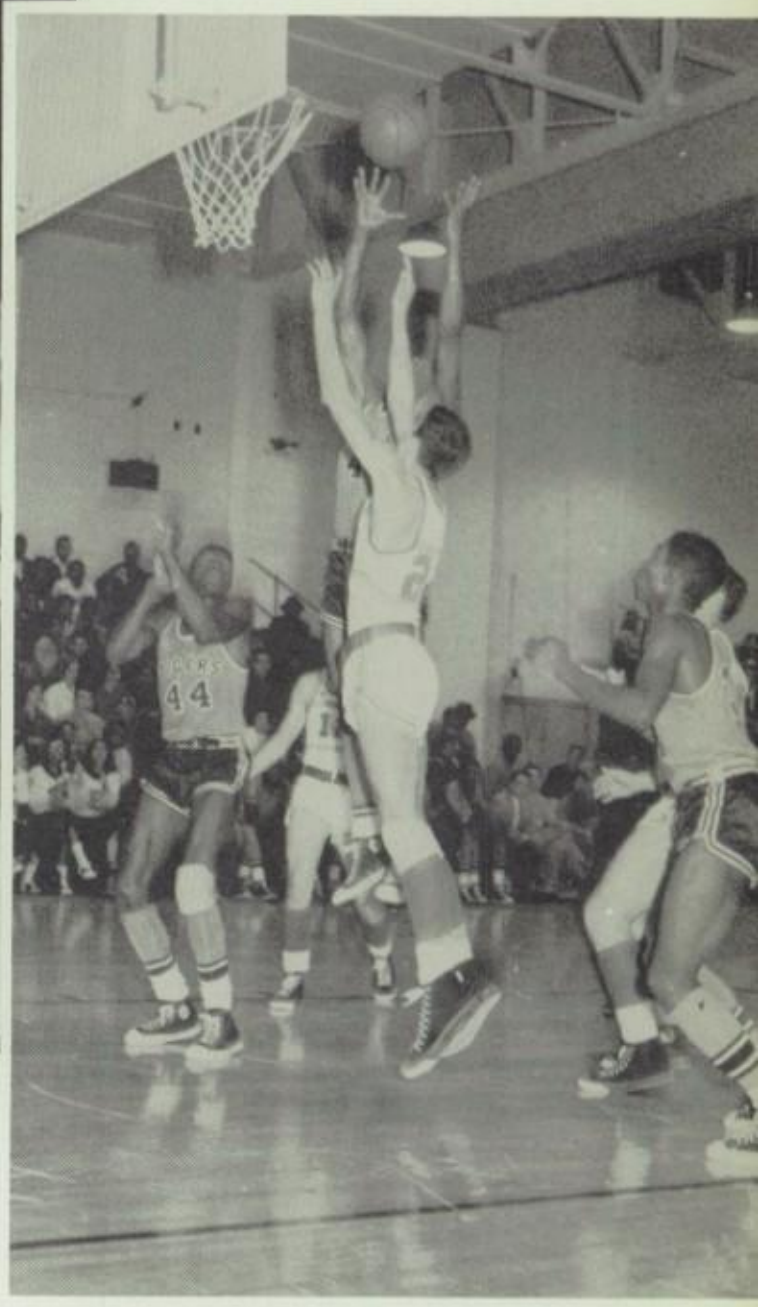
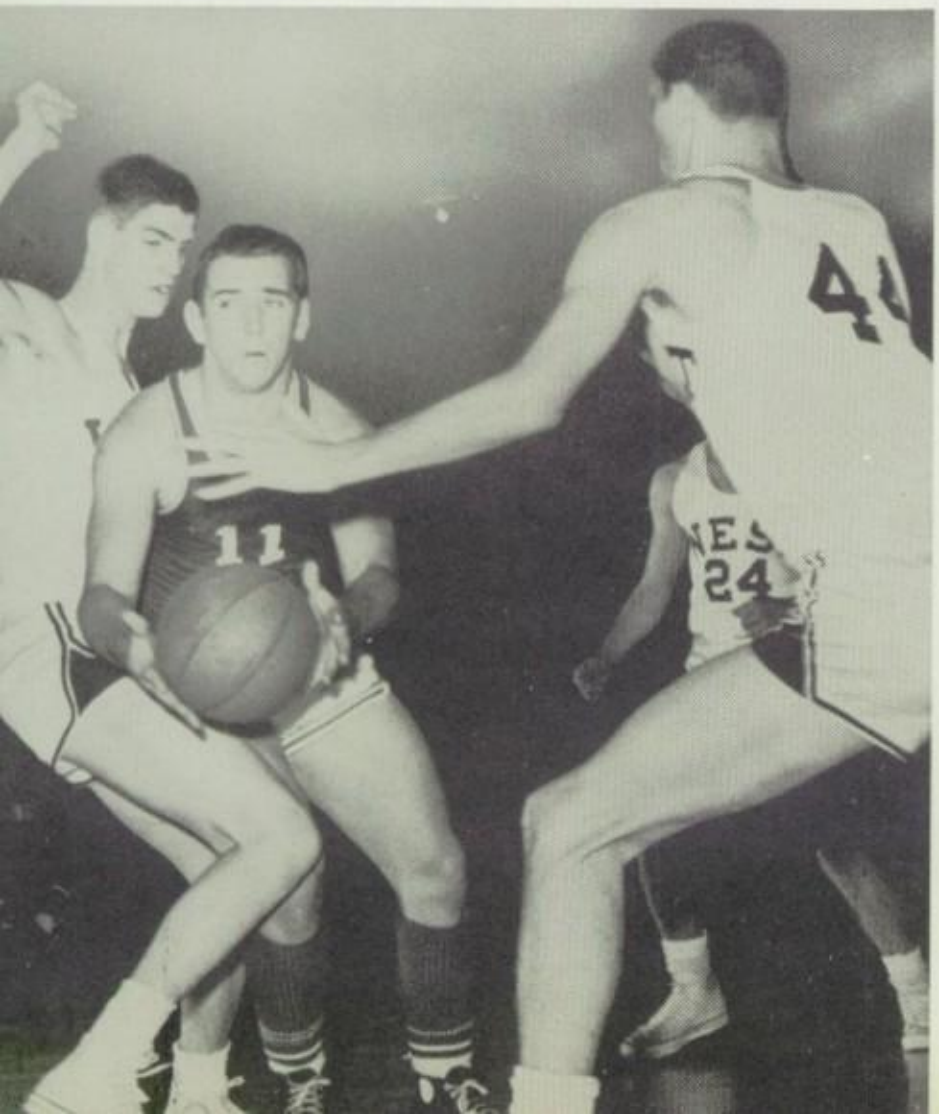
Nick Cooper adds two to the cause.



"Rebounding Dick" Schulz reaches high in the air.



Tim Lower attempts a rebound in hostile territory.



Surrounded by West Cagers, Dick Schulz looks for a way out.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Throughout the football season and again during basketball the enthusiasm of the cheerleaders guides our team to victory, or assures the players of the students' confidence that they have done their best in defeat. With their constant practices, pep rallies, and games, our cheerleaders are the personified spirit of Eastmoor.

This is Eastmoor's first year for hockey. The girls are Mary Jo Flowers, Judy Williams, Karen Dutton, Nancy Murphy, and Launa Carofiol.

GIRLS'

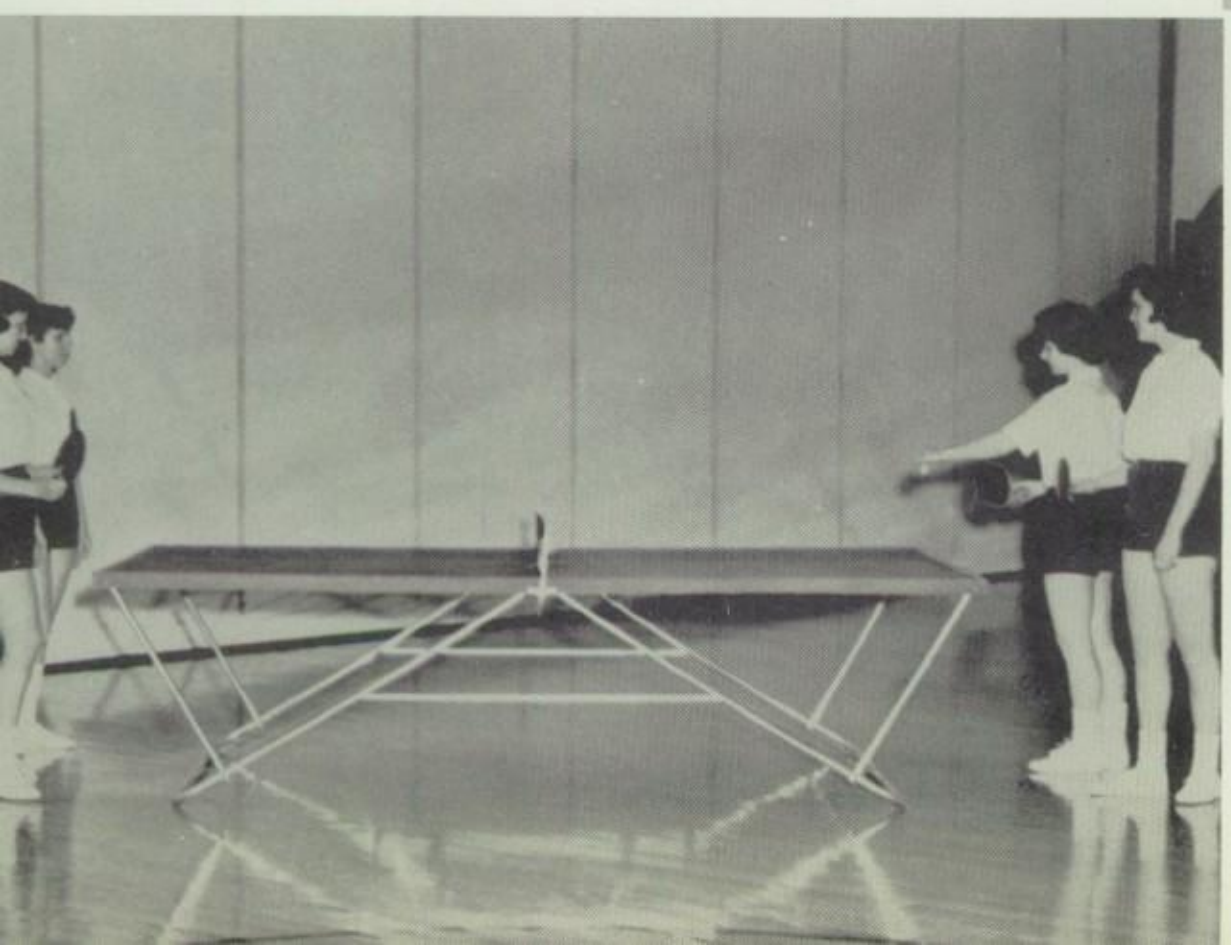
Sherry Teeter, Margaret Tracy, and Sally Harrison are trying their luck at badminton.

Cathy Hiser and Barbara Edge are trying their hand at shuffleboard.

SPORTS

Good reflexes are an essential in basketball. The girls pictured are Arlene Masch, Sharon Smith, Joyce Maguire, and Linda Koetz.



Shirley Weemhoff, Darla Schafer, Nancy Welch, and Joyce Baughman are playing a friendly game of table tennis.

SENIOR HIGH TRACK SQUAD

The 1958 track season saw Terry Hall, the team's leading "point getter," and the Warrior thinclads make their mark on more tracks than any previous year. Being easily tabbed as the outstanding star, Terry blazed to a hard-fought fifth place in the state district track meet. When the mile race at the City track meet started, there were about twenty runners bunched together and all their minds were on one thought—victory. After two laps our Terry was fighting to stay above water following a bad start. When it was over that lion-hearted little guy carried the red, white, and blue to a strong third place finish.

Dave Perkins puts on steam to win the 880.

QUILL AND SCROLL members of 1959: Marjorie Hillson and Judy Sterling, Co-Editors; Sue Dose, Copy Editor; Karen Groves, Class Editor; and Jean Kohar, Circulation Manager.

QUILL AND SCROLL is the international honorary society for high school journalists. The honor of membership in QUILL AND SCROLL goes to those who have shown high scholarship (upper one third of the senior class in scholastic standing), journalistic achievement of superior quality, and service to our school. The Eastmoor Chapter was chartered in 1958 with Mrs. Hicks as advisor.

Homeroom 109 was again first with one hundred per cent enrolled as subscribers to the 1959 SHIELD. Staff member Dave Ray poses writing up subscriptions for Barbara Gibson, Mr. Shurlow, Curt Taylor, and Dave Ray. Give Karen Groves a pat on the back for this achievement. She was the actual salesman assigned to Homeroom 109 who helped them come in first again.
